Childhood Cancer Foundation will sponsor a Spring Egg Hunt on Saturday, March 23, 2013 at the Yucaipa Community Park for children who have cancer and their families. Families registered with Childhood Cancer Foundation will participate in the event from 11:00am to 1:00pm, with the egg hunt beginning at 12:30pm.

Fun at the 2012 Spring Egg Hunt.

Over 200 children and their parents have registered to join in the Spring bash. A special guest, the Easter Bunny, will be at the park with over 2,500 stuffed plastic eggs and Easter baskets for all the children. The Easter bunny will also lead the children in a variety of group games and dances. The San Bernardino Public Employees Association will generously provide the food and refreshments. Families will be able to meet and reunite with other families that have gone through similar circumstances while the kids enjoy a day of Spring fun.

Information about Childhood Cancer Foundation of Southern California can be found online at the CCFSC website, www.ccsocal.org. CCFSC is also available via phone (909) 558-3419 or email, kids@ccsocal.org.

Receiving non-profit status in September of 1981, Childhood Cancer Foundation of Southern California, Inc. (CCFSC) is now more than 700 families strong committed to serving children with cancer and their families throughout Southern California emotionally, financially, educationally and with emergency assistance. CCFSC works directly with the families to identify their need for support. Communication with another family experiencing this devastating disease is very beneficial and CCFSC family events and activities provide this support.
