Be brave and "go bald" for childhood cancer or get a haircut and style to show your support of these courageous children.

This is an opportunity for the community to show its support of families fighting this disease through the annual Hair Cut-A-Thon hosted by Childhood Cancer Foundation of Southern California.

The Riverside City College Cosmetology School, 4699 Olivewood Ave., Riverside, will be hosting its 3rd Annual Hair Cut-A-Thon. New to the Hair Cut-A-Thon family is the Alexis Victoria Salon & Spa, 5 E. Citrus Ave., Redlands. The event will be held Saturday, April 20, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at both locations.

Haircuts at the RCC Cosmetology School will be done by students with instructor supervision a minimum donation of $10; Alexis Victoria Salon haircuts will be a donation of $20.

Children who have been diagnosed with cancer will attend the event as "guest hair stylists" to Stylists will also be available to cut and style the hair of those who would not like a shaved head but would still like to show their support with a regular cut and style.

All 12-inch hair donations will be sent to Wigs for Kids, an organization dedicated to providing wigs for children with cancer. Throughout the years, CCFSC has collected more than 200 12-inch hair donations with the support of the community.

Call CCFSC to schedule your appointment: 909-558-3419, or visit www.ccsocal.org/haircut.

More information and photos of the previous Hair Cut-A-Thon can be found online at the CCFSC website, www.ccsocal.org. CCFSC is also available via email, kids@ccsocal.org.

Receiving nonprofit status in September of 1981, Childhood Cancer Foundation of Southern California, Inc. is now more than 700 families strong committed to serving children with cancer and their families throughout Southern California emotionally, financially, educationally and with emergency assistance.
