CHILDHOOD CANCER FOUNDATION OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA | June 06, 2013; 10:43 AM | Comments \(0\)

Childhood Cancer Foundation of Southern California and the California Correctional Peace Officers Association will provide a picnic for families with a child with cancer at Hunter Hobby Park in Riverside on Sunday, June 9, 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Children with cancer and their families will enjoy a fun-filled day where they can participate in such events as water balloon tosses, three-legged races and tug-a-war. The Live Steamers will provide free train rides. The California Correctional Peace Officers Association will cook hamburgers and hot dogs.

More information: www.ccfsoal.org or 909-558-3419. Families must be registered with Childhood Cancer Foundation to participate.
