Auction to raise money for children with cancer

By Ryan Hagen Posted: 03/04/2013 06:36:45 PM PST

SAN BERNARDINO -- Childhood Cancer Foundation of Southern California is holding a quarter auction Saturday, a fundraiser it describes as new and fun.

Participants get a paddle at the door with a number on it, then bid 1, 2, 3, or 4 quarters on the items they want. Then, they put the number of quarters announced in the jar on their table and raise their paddle. If their number is drawn and called, they win.

Items to be raffled include those from Cookie Lee, Miche Bag, AVON, The Pampered Chef, Mary Kay, Jewels by Park Lane, Tupperware, Scentsy, Origami Owl, Gold Canyon Candles and Sweets~N~Treats.

Admission is $10 and includes 1 bidding paddle, 2 auction tickets (25 cents each), light refreshments and a glass of wine. Only those 21 and over allowed.

The event is 1:30 to 3 p.m. on Saturday at the Humane Society of San Bernardino Valley Auditorium, 374 W. Orange Show Road, San Bernardino.
