Childhood Cancer Foundation to hold spring egg hunt in Yucaipa

Childhood Cancer Foundation will hold its 14th annual spring egg hunt 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday at Yucaipa Community Park, 34900 Oak Glen Road, Yucaipa.

The event is for children who have cancer and for their families. Families registered with Childhood Cancer Foundation will participate. More than 250 children and their parents have registered for the event.

The Easter Bunny will be at the park with more than 5,000 stuffed plastic eggs and Easter baskets for all the children. The Easter Bunny will also lead the children in a variety of group games and dances.

Cardenas Markets will cater the event.

Receiving non-profit status in September 1981, Childhood Cancer Foundation of Southern California Inc. is now more than 700 families strong, committed to serving children with cancer and their families throughout Southern California emotionally, financially, educationally and with emergency assistance.

The foundation works directly with families to identify their need for support. According to the foundation, communication with other families experiencing childhood cancer is beneficial, and the foundation's family events and activities help provide that support.
